

Dear Library Customer:

Thank you for subscribing to the journals and electronic subscription products of American Psychiatric Publishing, Inc. in 2009. Over the course of the year we've spoken with many of you about a variety of issues that affect librarians, scientific publishers, and scholarly societies who serve the diverse information needs of scholars, professionals, and clinicians.

The economic recession was most often the theme of those conversations, especially its severe impact on budgets. We realize that your funds are tight and quite likely have been cut for next year. As a result, American Psychiatric Publishing will not raise subscription prices in 2010 for our journals, our newspaper Psychiatric News, or our books-journals portal at www.PsychiatryOnline.com.

In addition to holding prices steady, we'd like to offer a two other ways to save:

1. Go Online Only—We understand that many libraries are migrating their journals collection to electronic formats. If your library is moving in that direction, you'll be interested to know that switching from our bundled option (print + online) to an online-only subscription can save you money. The chart below shows savings for The American Journal of Psychiatry:

	Bundled	Online Only	Savings
TIER 1	$330	$279	$51
TIER 2	$628	$533	$95
TIER 3	$788	$669	$119
TIER 4	$1,044	$888	$156

To learn more about savings for other APPI journals, please contact Jan Roque, Sales and Marketing Associate, at institutions@psych.org or 1-703-907-7874 and for subscriptions to www.PsychiatryOnline.com, please contact Trang Smith, Marketing and Sales Manager, at institutions@psych.org or 1-703-907-8538.

2. Lock in 2010 APPI Journal Pricing for 2 years—Save 10% by subscribing for two years. You'll lock in 2010 pricing for 2010 and 2011 and receive a 10% discount off both years' subscription rate.

APPI Standards of Excellence

APPI follows the highest standards of scholarship and quality in our publishing program, which includes these subscription products:

- The American Journal of Psychiatry
- Psychiatric Services
- Academic Psychiatry
- The Journal of Neuropsychiatry and Clinical Neurosciences
- Psychosomatics: The Journal of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry
- Focus: The Journal of Lifelong Learning

- Psychiatric News
- www.PsychiatryOnline.com

A few of our recent achievements include:

- According to the January 2009 Thomson Scientific Essential Science Indicators, five of the Top 40 most highly cited articles in psychiatry/psychology appeared in The American Journal of Psychiatry (AJP). No other journal had more!
- AJP is now the #1 journal in psychiatry in terms of immediacy according to Thomson Scientific's Immediacy Index. This important performance metric is calculated by dividing the number of citations to articles published in a given year by the number of articles published in that year. The Immediacy Index is a good measure of how quickly a given journal's articles are cited—AJP's #1 placement is a result of publishing articles that are relevant and that cover current "hot" topics and cutting-edge research.
- AJP saw its 2008 Impact Factor rise almost a full point to reach 9.127, placing it 3rd among the 94 psychiatry journals indexed, while still remaining the far-and-away leader in total citations.
- A recent poll conducted by the BioMedical & Life Sciences Division of The Special Libraries Association identified the 100 most influential journals in all of Biology & Medicine over the last 100 years. The American Journal of Psychiatry was among those honored, the only psychiatry/psychology journal represented (<http://units.sla.org/division/dbio/publications/resources/dbio100.html>).

We strive to deliver the best psychiatric content and with our pricing announcement we hope that you will continue to provide content from American Psychiatric Publishing, Inc. to your patrons.
